

Am. Little League Will Hold Meeting

Individuals interested in the American Little League major or minor teams are invited to attend an open meeting to be held in the Seaside school auditorium at 8 p.m. February 28. The group plans to have an open meeting on the fourth Tuesday of each month. Eight people were elected to the board of directors at the last meeting, including: Jay Rouse, John Keyes, Quinn Johnson, Paul Roettger, Floyd Newell, Tom Child, Bob Wilson, and Mary Daniels. Paul Roettger was chosen president; Floyd Newell, vice-president; and Mary Daniels, secretary-treasurer. The league is open to boys between the ages of 8-12. Among matters still needing attention is the minor field at Seaside park. The bleachers and fence must be erected; the concession stand needs work; the field requires dragging; sponsors and uniforms are needed; and try-outs must be scheduled.

Volleyball Tourney Scheduled

"Serve Out" will be the cry in the girls' gym at Torrance high Monday, February 27, as the co-ed volleyball tourney gets underway.

Sponsored by the Torrance Recreation Department, officials for the games will be Miss Doris Avis and Miss Joan Wooten from the Torrance high faculty, assisted by four students from the University of Southern California.

So far six teams have signed up and if any others desire to do so, they may contact either Miss Avis at Torrance high, or Miss Marilyn Jensen at the Torrance Recreation Department before 3 p.m. on Monday, February 27.

There is a one dollar entry fee for each team. Refreshments will be served to all participating and medals awarded the first and second place teams on the last night of the tourney, March 5.

Talk Around Tartarville

"Time Out for Ginger" was presented Friday afternoon to students of Torrance high school and an evening performance was held Saturday night. All members of the cast did a splendid job in portraying their respective roles. A cast party was held after the play Saturday night at Bob McElroy's house.

The Tartars won their basketball game Friday night over Mira Costa.

As a result of a recent election in Varsity club, new officers are: President, Bob Hanks; vice-president, Ken Wheat; secretary-treasurer, John Zamrila; and sergeant-at-arms, Skip Smith.

Tri-Hi-Y also elected new officers. President is Carlene

Sandstrom; vice-president, Bev Oaks; secretary, Barbara Carter; treasurer, Jeanne Blank; historian, Lorna Hall; chaplain, Linda Thistle; sergeant-at-arms, Marilyn Moss; and sanitary engineer, Helen Roberts.

On February 18, a combination birthday and slumber party was held at the home of Kathy Kirks. From all reports it was a lot of fun, including the "invasion."

Those attending were: Joyce Gregory, Gwen Hull, Julia Binford, Diane Norum, Dolly Gardner, Kathy Kirks (who talks in her sleep) and Gloria Dutton (whose vocabulary consists of one word—Tom).

All Torrance high students were excused from school yesterday for George Washington's birthday.
